

Just Economics of Western North Carolina (JE) is a grassroots, community-based organization based in Asheville. We educate, advocate, and organize for equitable economic conditions, increased union representation, and a fair share for all in the prosperity of our region, regardless of race, gender, or citizenship status.

Join the growing movement for a living wage & a more just local economy!

Get involved in the work of Just Economics:

- ▶ Become a member of Just Economics—annual membership costs only $10 and makes you part of the growing movement for economic justice WNC.
- ▶ Volunteer your time—participate in Living Wage Campaign actions and promote JE's Living Wage Employer Certification program, do campaign research, help staff JE events, design campaign materials and artwork, and much more.
- ▶ Organize an event or action in your community or on campus in support of the Asheville-Buncombe Living Wage Campaign.
- ▶ Educate members of your community. Visit www.justeconomicswnc.org for resources and campaign materials.
- ▶ Intern with Just Economics. Gain experience in organizing, public speaking, campaign strategy and research, fundraising, and the “nuts and bolts” of running a non-profit organization. Summer and school year opportunities available.
- ▶ Become a Living Wage Certified Employer, or recruit a friend or family member to have their business or organization certified.

For information on these and other ways to become involved in JE's work, contact:

Sarah Osmer, Coordinator of Just Economics
828.301.7291 * info@justeconomicswnc.org
P.O. Box 2396 * Asheville, NC 28802

www.justeconomicswnc.org

Just Economics of Western North Carolina (JE) is a grassroots, community-based organization based in Asheville. We educate, advocate, and organize for equitable economic conditions, increased union representation, and a fair share for all in the prosperity of our region, regardless of race, gender, or citizenship status.

Join the growing movement for a living wage & a more just local economy!

Get involved in the work of Just Economics:

- ▶ Become a member of Just Economics—annual membership costs only $10 and makes you part of the growing movement for economic justice WNC.
- ▶ Volunteer your time—participate in Living Wage Campaign actions and promote JE's Living Wage Employer Certification program, do campaign research, help staff JE events, design campaign materials and artwork, and much more.
- ▶ Organize an event or action in your community or on campus in support of the Asheville-Buncombe Living Wage Campaign.
- ▶ Educate members of your community. Visit www.justeconomicswnc.org for resources and campaign materials.
- ▶ Intern with Just Economics. Gain experience in organizing, public speaking, campaign strategy and research, fundraising, and the “nuts and bolts” of running a non-profit organization. Summer and school year opportunities available.
- ▶ Become a Living Wage Certified Employer, or recruit a friend or family member to have their business or organization certified.

For information on these and other ways to become involved in JE's work, contact:

Sarah Osmer, Coordinator of Just Economics
828.301.7291 * info@justeconomicswnc.org
P.O. Box 2396 * Asheville, NC 28802

www.justeconomicswnc.org

Many North Carolina workers are struggling to make ends meet!

- ▶ 1 out of every 4 workers in Buncombe County work in low-wage jobs. That's 30,000 people in our community, many of whom earn the minimum wage—$6.15/hour.
- ▶ The two fastest growing occupations in our state pay near poverty wages—retail sales persons and cashiers earn about $7.50/hour, on average.
- ▶ Half of families with children in NC can't make ends meet.

Our community can do better.

Working people deserve a decent wage that allows them to afford the basic necessities of life.

Take action with Just Economics of WNC.
Make this a living wage community!

Many North Carolina workers are struggling to make ends meet!

- ▶ 1 out of every 4 workers in Buncombe County work in low-wage jobs. That's 30,000 people in our community, many of whom earn the minimum wage—$6.15/hour.
- ▶ The two fastest growing occupations in our state pay near poverty wages—retail sales persons and cashiers earn about $7.50/hour, on average.
- ▶ Half of families with children in NC can't make ends meet.

Our community can do better.

Working people deserve a decent wage that allows them to afford the basic necessities of life.

Take action with Just Economics of WNC.
Make this a living wage community!

